President's Message:

Welcome to another season of vibrant live theatre. Thanks to the Artistic Committee which has created a season with something to please everyone – comedy, intrigue, music, suspense.

As well as the three mainstage productions, we are excited to include a Christmas pantomime in this year's program. Thanks also to those who have taken on the onerous task of directing these plays. Without them the productions would not happen.

The 2014/15 season marks Shuswap Theatre's 38th year of entertaining our community. It also marks the first year you will have the convenience of selecting your seats and buying your tickets online. Our thanks to the City of Salmon Arm through the Shuswap Community Foundation and to the Shuswap Rotary Club who donated funds for the equipment needed for this new program.

Join us in the excitement and extend a warm thank you to our sponsors, supporters and those members who step up to act, direct, produce or be one of the large numbers of crew members ensuring that the "show will go on."

SHUSWAP THEATRE'S ODD SEASON

Excitement is percolating because of our ODD season! Starting with The Odd Couple, the classic Neil Simon comedy known for laughter throughout the years, followed by our oddly different Christmas show Bah Humbug!, laughter filled with Tiny Tim as a rebellious teenager. 2 x 2 is two oddly connected one-act plays. Instead of dwelling on tragedy, “Jewel” reflects the thoughts of a woman who values love after loss. “My Narrator” is an oddly quirky look at what we should have said when hooking up with someone for the first time. Our final show, Pack of Lies, is again “odd,” because things are never what they seem. This intrigue leads you slowly into a conflict of emotions.

We hope you enjoy our selections and check out our Open House, workshops, Improv and other events at Shuswap Theatre.

The Odd Couple

by Neil Simon directed by Julia Body
Presented by special arrangement with Samuel French

Our first play of the season is the hilarious comedy, The Odd Couple, one of Neil Simon’s best. Felix Unger is depressed and suicidal after his wife throws him out. It is poker night and Felix ends up at the apartment of his best friend, Oscar Madison, who lives alone since his divorce. Felix, a compulsive neat freak, moves in with Oscar, a self-proclaimed slob. Can two complete opposites live together without killing each other?

Feb 20 - Mar 7, 2015

2 X 2 Two one act plays - two directors

Presented by special arrangement with Playwrights Guild of Canada

“Jewel” by Joan McLeod directed by Elizabeth Ann Skelhorne is based on a real-life catastrophe - the sinking of the Ocean Ranger, an oil rig off the coast of Newfoundland, on Valentine’s Day, 1982. Positively, three years later, a widow, Marjorie Clifford, at home in her trailer in Fort St. John, BC, begins to take the first step in understanding that the humanity of love, in all of its tentative frailty, uncertainty and promise, can free a life paralyzed and dominated by loss.

“My Narrator” by Norm Foster directed by Kate McKie
Have you ever heard those voices in your head telling you what is right and wrong? What do you think would happen if those voices took on a life of their own? In “My Narrator” the voices attempt to guide two troubled would be lovers through their sputtering relationship only to find the voices themselves becoming attracted to each other... Can they keep their celestial love affair alive?

Apr 24 to May 9, 2015

Pack of Lies

by Hugh Whitmore directed by Kim MacMillan
Presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

The Jacksons are a pleasant, middle aged English couple. Their best friends are their Canadian neighbors, the Krogers. All is blissful in their world until an agent from MI5 asks to use their teenaged daughter’s bedroom as an observation post to foil a Soviet spy ring operating in the area. The Jacksons become more and more distressed as MI5’s demands increase. They are really put to the test when the agent reveals that the spies are their closest friends. Should they betray their friends? Should they tell their daughter, who loves Auntie Helen and Uncle Peter? Is their whole friendship built on lies?

Dec 5 - Dec 14, 2014

Bah Humbug!

by Tina and Rob Burbidge directed by Paul Kirkwood-Hackett Presented by special arrangement with Lazy Bee Scripts.

This fun filled musical pantomime is a retelling of Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol. It has all the well-loved characters including Ebenezer Scrooge, the Ghost of Christopher Marley and the Cratchitt family, except Tiny Tim is now a teenager – and an amusing one, although his family doesn’t think so. This show is a treat for the whole family.

Mainstage shows now run over 3 weekends! No shows Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday
