

Costumes Report 2013-14

- THE PURGE CONTINUES!!!! Donna and I took the summer off as it is TOO hot up there and we were both otherwise_occupied.
- We have been given some interesting items including : RCMP Auxiliary items, vintage nurses outfits, and some very different dresses and coats. Again, thanks to Ellen Gonella, we received new items from the Complete Works of Shakespeare.
- I continue to rent costumes. The two largest rentals was to James for his children's play, and to Julia Body for her school play in Armstrong. Unfortunately, many of the items are now stuck behind picket lines. There wasn't a Credit Union rental of costumes this year. There were only other smaller rentals. I did rent to Nadine Scott for the Girl Guide Rally that took place this past summer. We are now getting items together for the Fall Fair Parade and Open House.
- OUR NAME IS OUT THERE! At Piccadilly Mall each Remembrance Day and Easter, we rent to them costumes. As a result, we have received numerous military items and thanks.
