

CARAVAN FARM THEATRE IS LOOKING FOR 12 COMMUNITY MEMBERS
TO VOLUNTEER IN THE ROLES OF:
THE CITIZENS OF PARADISE PLAZA

THE COYOTES

A Howl of a Romantic Comedy

By Peter Anderson

Music by John Millard

Directed by Estelle Shook

JULY 16 TO AUGUST 11

Join us this summer as we revisit a Caravan Classic: Peter Anderson's The Coyotes, first staged by The Caravan Stage Company in 1978. This is a landmark show for Caravan Farm Theatre where we honour the play that set the style for the company for years to come: mask, music, physical comedy and more. Help us celebrate our 41 years on the farm!

THE CITIZEN CHORUS

The Citizens of Paradise Plaza are in the final climactic scenes of The Coyotes. They have come to the “Annual Drinking of the Water” ceremony, presided over by WANDA (played by JIMMY TAIT). The scene entails some singing, some simple blocking, and some reacting to the events that unfold (an accusation, a death, a surprise appearance, a resurrection, a wedding - just like church!). A strong singing voice is a definite asset - Composer John Millard has written a simple but compelling vocal line for the Chorus to learn and perform.

If you are interested in participating, please email us by clicking the link below. Participants will receive 4 complimentary tickets for the night of their choice, plus 2 tickets for opening night.
