Director's Notes

Shuswap Theatre Society is proud to present our Fall production, Into the Woods. Being a part of this process has been incredibly rewarding, and everyone involved has worked endlessly to create the finished product. Shuswap Theatre prides itself as an organization that creates opportunities for community members to share in their love for theatre, both on and off stage.

Working with this cast has been nothing short of a great pleasure. Having the chance to work with such talented people not only allows me to grow as an artist, but also as a person. Throughout this process the cast has worked tirelessly to connect parts of themselves to their characters, and I'm excited for you to see the finished product of the time and energy they've spent developing their characters.

Into the Woods is an important piece of theatre that deserves attention and celebration more than ever. A show about struggle, personal choice, and finding yourself, Into the Woods celebrates humanity and what it means to have a life. In today's socio-political climate, we are fogged by a culture that encourages punishing those who make mistakes, punishing those in need, and turning our backs on those who need help. Into the Woods is a show that, in contrast, teaches us to love, to care, and to trust. Throughout this performance you will hopefully take away many lessons, but most importantly I hope you leave realizing one thing: no one is alone.

Thank you again for coming out and supporting Shuswap Theatre, this incredible cast and crew and all of the hard work we've put into the production. Now sit back and join us as we venture... Into the Woods.
